

GSA

THE U.S. GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

Who Are We?

August 31, 2010
Georgia Tech Research Institute
Atlanta, Georgia

The Agency

- GSA established by President Harry Truman on July 1, 1949.
- GSA leverages the buying power of the federal government to acquire best value for taxpayers and our federal customers.
- GSA delivers superior workplaces, quality acquisition services and expert business solutions.

GSA - What We Do

- GSA delivers products, services and policies to its federal customers through the:
 - Federal Acquisition Service
 - Public Buildings Service
- GSA interacts with our customers through 11 Regional Offices and Central Office in Washington, D.C.

FAS - What We Do

Federal Acquisition Service

- Uses innovative techniques and wide-buying power to successfully deliver new and existing services, products and solutions.
- Delivers over $50 billion of best-value products, services and solutions to federal customers, allowing them to effectively and efficiently achieve their missions.

PBS - What We Do

Public Buildings Service

- Landlord for the civilian federal government.
- Design and build award-winning courthouses, border stations, federal buildings, labs, data centers, etc.
- Repair, alter, and renovate facilities.
- Lease space.

PBS - What We Do

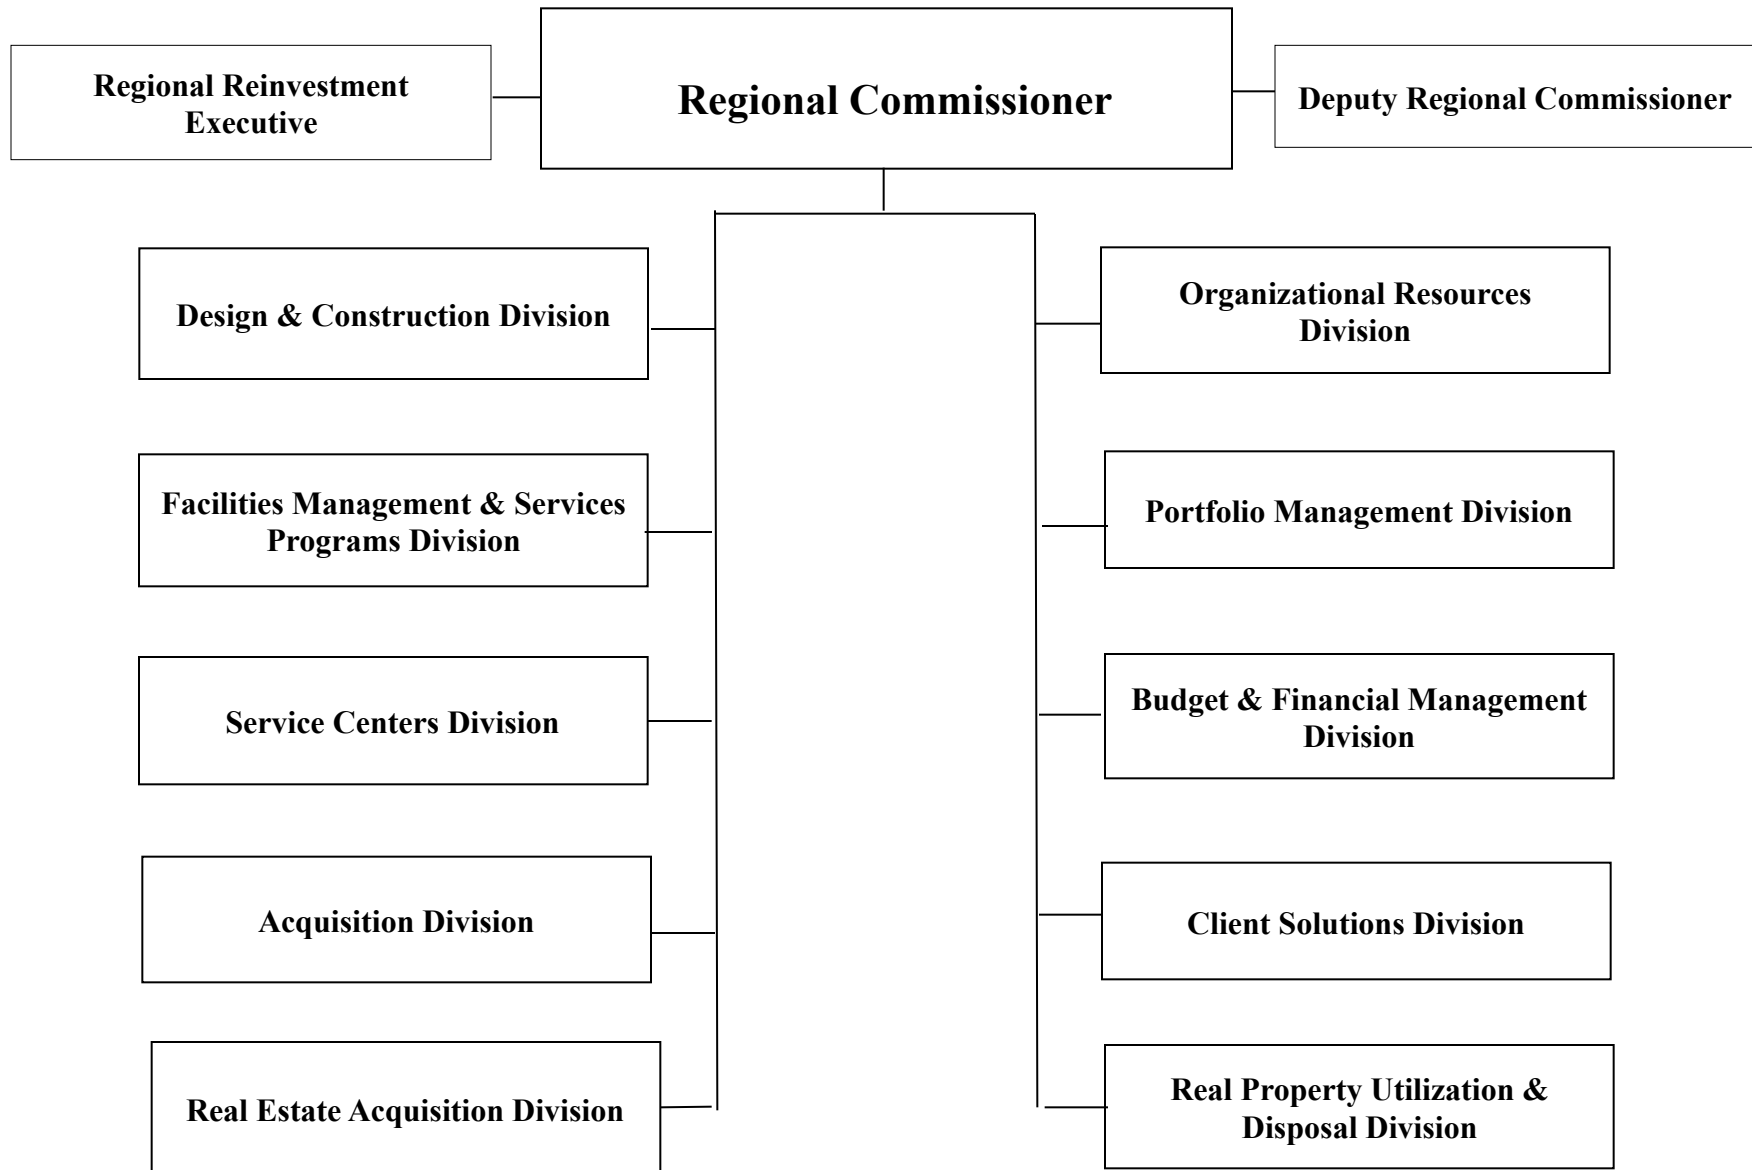

Public Buildings Service

- Leader in energy conservation, sustainability, recycling, and historic preservation.
- We house over 100 child care centers.
- Donate or sell real estate for federal agencies.
- Commission artwork for buildings and conserve New Deal art.

How We Do It

- GSA's Southeast Sunbelt Region (Region 4) is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia and serves Eight (8) States:
Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.
- More than 570 PBS regional employees serving 125,000 tenants in over 39,000,000 square feet of federally owned and leased office.

How PBS (Region 4) Is Organized ⁸